PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN OF THE MUNICIPAL MANAGER

INTRODUCTION

The aim of the Personal Development Plan (PDP) is to ensure that Employees are skilled to meet Objectives as set out in the Performance Management Agreement as prescribed by legislation. Successful career-path planning ensures competent employees for current and possible future positions. It's there to identify, prioritise, and implement training needs.

Legislative needs taken into account comes from the Municipal Systems Act, Guidelines, Generic senior management competency framework and occupational competency profiles, Municipal Finance Management Competency Regulations, such as those developed by the National Treasury and other line sector department's legislated competency requirements need also be taken into consideration during the PDP competencies.

COMPETENCE MODELLING

The DPLG has decided that a competency development model will consist of both managerial and occupational competencies:

Managerial competencies should express those competencies which are generic of all management positions.

Occupational competencies should express those competencies which are Job/function specific.

When identifying training needs, the following needs to be taken into consideration:

Organisational needs

- Strategic development priorities and competency requirements, in line with the municipality's strategic objectives
- Competency requirements of individual jobs
- The relevant job (job competency profile) as identified in the job description should be compared to the current competency profile of the employee to determine the individual's competency gaps
- Specific competency gaps as identified during the performance appraisal of the employee

Individual training needs

Job/career related

It is of critical importance that training needs be addressed on a phased and priority basis. This implies that all these needs should be prioritized for purposes of accommodating critical/strategic training and development needs in the HRMD Plan, Personal Development Plans and the Workplace Skills Plan.

The suggested time frames enable managers to effectively plan for the annum e.g. so that not all their employees are away from work within the same period and also ensuring that the PDP is implemented systematically.
